The Annual Quality Assurance Report (AQAR) of the IQAC (2012 – 2013)

All NAAC accredited institutions will submit an annual self-reviewed progress report to NAAC, through its IQAC. The report is to detail the tangible results achieved in key areas, specifically identified by the institutional IQAC at the beginning of the academic year. The AQAR will detail the results of the perspective plan worked out by the IQAC. (Note: The AQAR period would be the Academic Year. For example, July 1, 2012 to June 30, 2013)

Annexure - II

Best Practice - I

1. Title of the Practice

Construction of Boundary Building (South Block)

2. Goal

The aim of construction of boundary wall is to make the College well protected. It is also necessary for the beautification of an institution of higher education.

3. The Context

Tihu College has two blocks – North Block and South Block. Most of the classrooms, a few departments, particularly the Science Departments are located in the North block whereas the Administrative Building and a few departments and classrooms are in the South Block. The North Block was surrounded by a boundary wall in 2003. But, due to lack of fund the boundary wall could not be constructed around this Block.

4. The Practice

The South Block is, primarily the Administrative Block which covers a large area. There is no construction in one part of this area due to lack of fund. Now, the whole area is enclosed by a boundary wall and it is well protected.

5. Evidence of Success

The positive results of this practice are:

- i) The area is fully protected.
- ii) The College is free from land dispute.
- iii) No animal can enter the campus.
- iv) It is safe and secure.

6. Problems Encountered and Resources Required

The problems associated with this practice are:

- i) It took time for construction of the boundary wall due to insufficient fund.
- ii) The back side of the South Block is damp and wet land.
- iii) The materials for construction are costly.

Best Practice - II

1. Title of the Practice

Gardening

2. Goal

The aim of gardening is to improve the aesthetic view of the College. It will inculcate a sense of beauty among the students.

3. The Context

As a centre of higher education, a college must give importance upon various aspects of it. Academic excellence is not the only purpose of the college; it must shine through other activities. Although there was garden in front of the administrative building, it was not well planned and maintained properly. With a view to improving the aesthetic beauty of the College, the college garden is renovated

4. The Practice

The Tihu College garden is full of flowery plants and blooming flowers which attract not only the students and staff of the College but also the passers-by. The Authority takes proper attention for its beautification. A gardener is appointed to look after the garden properly. Apart from the common flowers a good number of rare flowers are planted in the garden. The garden is always kept neat and clean

5. Evidence of Success

The positive results of this practice are:

- i) Flowers are available in the garden round the year.
- ii) Rare flowers are preserved in the garden.
- iii) It gives a unique view to the College.

6. Problems Encountered and Resources Required

The problems associated with this practice are:

- i) It becomes difficult to rear the plant during autumn.
- ii) The garden cannot be extended due to insufficient space.
- iii) One portion of the garden is flooded in rainy season.
